What God is teaching me during the days of COVID-19: Background:

I've been retired for five years, been blessed to remain busy during this time period and don't remember meditating on missing working at the University of Cincinnati in IT for more than five minutes (have thought about some of the good people I worked with from time to time). The timing was perfect for retiring when we did so, Donna and I moved to Kentucky to live in her parents' house and became their advocates as they were in a nursing home nearby. A local pastor resigned his church and I filled in preaching and teaching for about a year until a replacement was located and called. Then Donna's sister's husband was diagnosed with bile duct cancer and I was able to be with him Monday - Friday during the day which allowed his wife each day to oversee their businesses until he passed away. We then prepared Donna's parents house for sale (sold 1st week), then we moved to Ringgold and have enjoyed living in Catoosa County since September 2016. Donna and I joined BBBC in April 2017 and have been blessed beyond measure with opportunities to serve God through serving His people!

During these days of COVID-19 I have been reading God's Word, meditating on it, and praying it. Also been checking-on, helping and praying for the Seniors in our Sunday School Class, Young at Heart, and the PrimeTime Choir. Our Wednesday Night's Bible teacher David Cox gave us (among other things) an outline of some good information (Current Events and Bible Prophecy) to consider, meditate on, and how to "respond" during times such as these and they are:

We are to exercise our faith in the Sovereignty of God:

Did it ever occur to you that nothing has ever occurred to God, He knows all things and is in total control - PS 103:19 The LORD has established His throne in heavens, and His kingdom rules over all. Is 14:24b Surely, as I have thought, so it shall come to pass and as I have purposed, so shall it stand. Daniel 4:35, 1 Timothy 6:15, Is 46:10, Jonah 2:9, John 6:65, Rom 8:28-30, Rom 9:15-21

We are to exercise our faith in prayer:

Prayer is the Holy Spirit speaking in the believer, through Christ, to the Father. Jude 1:20 But you beloved, building yourselves up on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit (and Eph 6:18). Prayer is an expression of our dependence on God. Ps 145:18 The LORD is near to all who call upon Him, to all that who call upon Him in truth. Phil 4:6, Rom 15:30, 1 Thess. 5:16-18, Col 4:12

We confidently exercise our faith by sharing it with others:

That the sharing of your faith may become effective by the acknowledgement of every good thing which is in you in Christ Jesus (Philemon 1:6). So Jesus said to them again, Peace to you! As the Father hath sent Me, I also send you. John 20:21—For I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God to salvation for everyone who believes...Rom 1:16-17 and Rom 3:19-31, and 1 Cor 15:1- 11, 1 Peter 3:15-16, Rom 10:9-10, Is 6:8, Matt 9:37-38, Matt 11:28-30

We exercise our faith by leaving the results in God's hands:

Trust in the LORD with all your heart and lean not to your own understanding, in all your ways acknowledge Him and He will direct your paths. Prov 3:5-6, Be still and know that I am God... Ps 46:10a, Ps 9:10, Rom 8:28, Je 29:11, Ps 37:4-6, Is 41:10, Josh 1:9, 1 Peter 5:7, Psalms 55:22

We exercise our faith that no matter what happens to us, He loves us, we are His children, and He will by one means or another bring us into His eternal presence

And we have known and believed the love that God has for us, God is love, and he who abides in love abides in God and God in him. 1 John 4:16; 1 John 4: 19, 1 John 3:1, 1 Cor 13:13, Gal 2:20, Je 31:3, John 15:13, John 11:25, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, 1 Cor 15:35-58, 2 Cor 5:1-10, Phil 1:21
